

SMU's Anirban (with trophy) and Bhavya with Guest of Honour MP Inderjit Singh.

SMU wins Campus Quiz

FOR the second year running, the team from the Singapore Management University (SMU) won the Tata Crucible – The Campus Quiz contest.

A record number of 300 participants took part in the contest held on Oct 24 at the Rock Auditorium.

After three exciting hours, Anirban D. Gupta and Bhavya Khanna from SMU emerged as champions, beating 150 teams and walking away with the grand prize of $10,000. The first runners-up Damish Singh Kaha and Rachit Singh from National University of Singapore and Bai Zhiyong and Tay Shijia from Singapore Institute of Management were awarded cash prizes of S$5,000 and S$2,500 respectively.

The winning team will face off with the finalists of the Tata Campus Crucible in India next year.